And best—personality plus.

CATHERINE HOBBIE
FF Club

President Alabama Club, '22, '23
Vice-President Senior Class, '22, '23
Vice-President FF Club, '22, '23

Catherine has many a Hobbie—
Straight "A's," Cassie Leta, and dates.
And the reason we hear she's so popular,
Is the "line" which from her eminates.

JUANITA WILLIS
XL Club

President XL Club, '21, '22
President Student Council, '23
Secretary Senior Class, '22, '23

As President of Council this year,
As President of XL Club last,
Juanita has established a record
That can hardly be surpassed.

ELEANOR RENCH
TC Club

Treasurer Senior Class, '23
Hyphen Reporter, '23
Vice-President Missouri Club, '23

Now "EL" is just a good old sport,
And with that bright and clever;
Her clothes, too, are the very sort
That we are wishing ever.
LEONIE ALEXANDER

We wish we could probe you—find you out,
If you’d give us a chance as you ought,
We’d throw all caution to the winds,
And cry "A dollar for your thought."

ESTHER ALLEN
Penta Tau Club

Secretary and Treasurer Arkansas Club, '22, '23

Where'er you think of Esther,
As you're often prone to do,
You think of a girl with spirit and pep
And a good share of brilliancy too!

FRANCES ALLEN
Osiron Club

Business Manager Hyphen, '22, '23
Business Manager Milestones, '22, '23
Treasurer Osiron Club, '22, '23

If we hear of a big corporation
Called Allen—we won't be surprised;
We'll say with a nod and our nose in the air,
Who, Fran? Just what we had surmised.

CORINNE ALSCHULER
TC Club

Assistant Editor Milestones, '23

It's just the people like Corinne
That make the world go round;
Brains, pep, persistent energy.
All in one person found!
BLANCHE BACON
XL Club
Vice-President Texas Club, '22, '23
Treasurer Y. W. C. A., '22, '23
A heart that does for others beat,
To leave them smiling after:
Pink cheeks that blush like roses sweet,
Brown curls and sunny laughter.

EVELYN BAKER
Anti-Pandora Club
What is it about Evelyn that we like,
Fain would we answer, but see—
We don't know just why we admire her,
It's just because she is she.

FLORENCE BELL
Osiron Club
Vice-President Y. W. C. A., '22, '23
President Y. W. C. A., '22, '23
Hyphen Staff, '22, '23
When we try to write of Florence,
Her loveliness, her wit,
We simply breathe one long drawn sigh,
And well, how does she do it?

MARTHA BELL
When the boarders stare at Martha
They all sigh with envy dire,
For every girl in W-B
Longs for her car and her attire.
BERNICE BISH
TC Club
Vice-President Ohio Club, ’22, ’23
Bish is the best kind of all around sport
With nary a worry or care;
She’s genial, she has loads of spunk and of pep
And courage to do and to dare.

ANNA LOU BOYCE
Tri-K Club
Vice-President Tri-K Club, ’22, ’23
Manager Riding Club, ’23
By golden hair, soft eyes of blue,
And charming ways she has.
We know who claims our Anna Lou;
The Southern skies of Texas.

MARGARET BRYAN
Del Vers Club
We may forget a lot of girls
Who went to W-B
But when we our Sunday funnies read
We’ll think of “Mag,” won’t we?

LILLIAN CALLAGHAN
AK Club
We wish we could into the future
Of this maiden take a peek.
Lil seems quite sweet and meek, we know.
But “still waters will run deep.”
Catherine Capel
Anti-Pandora Club

We want to wish old Kate good luck,
And we know her "ha, ha, and ho, ho"
Will land her in some worth while plays—
That all the world will know.

Ina Marie Chason
TC Club

Proctor Cottages, '23
There’s Tennyson, Burns, and Goldsmith,
They all were quite great, but yet
To us there is none like our Ina Marie—
Our own poet laureate.

Frances Cogdal
AK Club

Just a real true blue girl
With a friendly word and a smile,
The sort that lightens work and care,
And makes life more worth while.

Margaret Collins
Tri-K Club

If we all had magic wishing rings,
We wouldn’t wish for pearls;
We’d beg the elves and fairies
For Margaret’s nut brown curls.
SARA COX

Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '22, '23

Counts in what we do tomorrow,
Sara will be in a Chemistry lab,
To some young man's great sorrow

ATHLEEN DICKEY

Beloved President of Tri-K,
A girl always at the head—
With popularity beyond compare.
Is Dickey the Physical-Ed.

THEO DONNEL
Beta Club

We all sit amazed with mouths quite agape
When we watch Theo tickle the keys,
And when fame and fortune are hers some fine day,
We'll say, "We knew her, if you please."

LUDIE EMERSON
Tri-K Club
Treasurer Tri-K Club, '22, '23

We've known lots of girls who were madly adored
By friends, parents, boys, and all that,
But Ludie's the first and only one
Whose "Crushie" was ever a rat.
ISABEL ENDERLIN
Del Vers Club
Vice-President Del Vers Club, '21, '22
President Del Vers Club, '22, '23
As President of Del Vers
She shows unusual power;
And grace, precision, dignity.
Are with her every hour.

SARA ENGLISH
Beta Club
If Sara only cared to show
Half that Sara knew.
You'd blush and die of ignorance.
You would—and we would, too.

LOUISE EPLING
Penta-Tau Club
Secretary and Treasurer West Virginia Club
A bit of Spanish-like fire,
A glorious love for fun.
Are things Louise is blessed with—
One couldn't want more, could one?

CHARLOTTE FLEMISTER
FF Club
President Georgia Club, '22, '23
Secretary FF Club, '22, '23
Charlotte is typically Southern,
In manner, in style, and speech;
She's one of the best of that good Club FF—
A regular "Georgia Peach."
VENA Foulds
TC Club

We hardly knew what to write about
When we looked that name in the eye;
And then—Oh, it's just old Bullets, we said.
And then laughed—we wonder why!

ELLEN JONES FRASIER
AK Club

President Mississippi Club, '22, '23
Treasurer AK Club, '23

"E. J." of the Frasier trio
Is loyal to W-B,
For in spite of her trip to Europe,
She's come back to us, you see.

GERALDINE FRENCH

President Penta Tau Club, '22, '23

If ever you come to Ward-Belmont,
Don't think we've a cannery.
For they just call her "Jelly."
Because she's sweet, you see.

CASSIE LETA GARRETT

President FF Club

She rules the "Famous Fifty."
She conquers each exam.
For tho she's small she's mighty,
And she hails from Alabam.
Nannie Gay
Anti-Pandora Club
Proctor North and South Front, '23
Secretary and Treasurer Kentucky Club, '22
Vice-President Kentucky Club, '23
Sergeant-at-arms Anti-Pandora Club, '23

They say North-front is a grand old hall;
Like Postum, "there's a reason."
It's Nannie's good old governing.
For she's their "Proc." this season.

Marion Goode
Del Vers Club
Vice-President Del Vers Club, '23

Trim is the word you think of
When you look at Marion;
And she's "goode," and yet not too good
To be just pecks of fun.

Sara Grulke
Agora Club

Sara has all the girlishness
Of a maid of sweet sixteen;
Is unaffected, pleasant too,
And with it all serene.

Eugenia Hill
Penta Tau Club

Tea dansant and parties gay
All flash into your mind
When you gaze at flippant Genie,
'Cause Genie's just that kind.
TORA HOCKENBURGER
XL Club
Secretary Glee Club, '22, '23
President Nebraska Club, '22, '23
Second Vice-President Student Council, '22

We'll always remember old Tora,
That girl with the queer sounding name
And the ring on her left hand finger
That puts our "grad" diamonds to shame.

RAMONA HOUSER
Del Vers Club
Is she a good sport? Does she "express?"
Does she get hockey balls out of a rut?
Allow us to say for Ramona
She "doesn't do nothin' else but."

ELIZABETH HOWSE
Beta Club
Howsewifely talent has 'Lizabeth,
I am sure you'd all agree
If she's late as she is to classes
Her husband quite hungry will be.

ELVA KILLINGSWORTH
Penta Tau Club
Vice-President Penta Tau Club, '22, '23
President Texas Club, '22
Vice-President Student Council, '22

There are few girls who can compare
With Elva Killingsworth;
For she is rich in wisdom's share
And loved by all on earth.
BERNITA JACOBS
Penta Tau Club

Bernita is the kind of girl
We all would like to be
For in expression she excels
And in singing too, you see.

RUTH KENDALL
FF Club

Recording Secretary, Athletic Association, '23
Hyphen Reporter, '22, '23

Ruth is terribly witty,
And clever too, 'tis said;
You see she really has to be
'Cause she's a "Physical-Ed."

MARY ELIZABETH LEFFINGWELL
Anti-Pandora Club

President Kentucky Club, '22, '23

Our best luck to you, Mary E.
May joy greet you every day
And leave a clear and glittering light
To aid you on your way.

MARY LIGON

In praise of your varied talents
Too much cannot be said.
HELEN KOHRS
AK Club
President Iowa Club, '23
Swimming Manager, '23
Treasurer AK Club, '23
"Lee" Kohrs deserves the highest praise
For zealousness in work,
Because in studies and in sports,
Her task she does not shirk.

MARY LOUISE KROENERT
TC Club
Steady, quiet, dependable
Are qualities choice and rare;
Add to them an attractive girl—
You've a choice possession there.

RUTH LA MAR
Anti-Pandora Club
To have such hair as Ruth's
You will doubtless and often sigh,
And you can tell she's brilliant—
By the twinkle in her eye.

CAROLYN LANDAUR
AK Club
Loveliness, wit, inimitable
Spirit—dash—and pep—
Is there one more delightful thing
To add to such a rep?
JULIA McKinsey
XL Club

Treasurer XL Club, '22, '23
President Indiana Club, '22, '23
Hyphen Reporter, '22

If you've never seen the salad that our own Julia made;
If you've never heard her dissertate in "psych;"
If you've never seen her many capabilities so fine;
I doubt if you will ever know the like.

JEAN McKnight
TC Club

President Michigan Club, '22, '23
Genera Proctor, '22

So you wonder we never wear rouge,
Or colored hats so bright?
Wonder no longer, our Proctor fine
Was no other than Jean McKnight.

JENNIE MAHAN
Anti-Pandora Club

Secretary Kentucky Club, '22, '23
Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '22, '23

We thought "Pollyana" was just a myth,
Of an angel, and things she would do;
But when Jennie came to Ward-Belmont
We found "Pollyanna" come true.

MARGARET MALONE
Digamma Club

It's not 'cause Margaret's clever,
'Cause she's filled with pep and pluck.
That Margaret gets where Margaret does,
It's just her Irish luck.
MILDRED MONTGOMERY
TC Club

A lively, likable sort of a girl
She's always appeared to me.
And then if you asked why it was so.
She'd say, "I am a TCC."

GRACE MORROW
Osiron Club

Is it true that Grace is a girl full of pep?
Is it true that she has "get up and go?"
Is it true that she's an expression shark?
"Well—maybe it is—I don't know!"

MARY MUESSE
TC Club

Vice-President Kansas Club, '21, '22
Hyphen Reporter, '22
Secretary TC Club, '22, '23
Basket-Ball Manager, '22

When women rule this queer old world
And frown on men from afar,
We won't be surprised when we see advertised
"Hail to Muesse—the basket-ball star."

TULA NORWOOD
Osiron Club

There's something different about Tula.
She likes solitude so well
She may be a genius, a poet.
She may be: you never can tell!
MARIE PARRENT
Beta Club

Marie is a girl from Nashville
Who is with us just through the day;
But we only need an hour or two
To learn to love her quiet way.

LUCY PENNYBACKER
Osiron Club

You may question where many girls come from;
But before even ask her you can,
Old Lucy will yell at the top of her voice,
"Didn’t you know I am an "Oklahoman?"

MARGARET PHILLIPS
Anti-Pandora Club

President Anti Pandora Club, ’22, ’23
We’d like to talk like "Phillips,"
’Cause talking’s a grand old sign.
Oh, well—we’ll leave it all to you,
Hasn’t the girl some "line!"

MARIE PREGLER
Anti-Pandora Club

Member Athletic Board, ’22, ’23
Her hair is lovely raven black,
She’s a grand old sport, ’tis said;
But more—her crowning glory is
That she’s a “Physical-Ed.”
MARGARET PRICE
ANTI-PANDORA CLUB

We’ve puzzled over Margaret’s future,
Over her intellect so great.
Is she to be another Curlie?
Well, we’ll leave it all to Fate.

MARY ALICE PUTNEY
DEL VERS CLUB

We wish you good luck, Mary-Alice,
And a life full of happiness too,
And we hope that the world will treat you
Just as it has been treated by you.

VIVIAN PEW

You’ll never forget Viv for her beauty,
You’ll never forget Viv for her pep,
And you’ll never forget that our dear old Viv
Helped give this book its rep.

CLARIBEL ROBINSON

A persuasive way, a winning look,
The power to beg and wheedle,
A wealth of hair and rosy cheeks,
And skill to wield the needle.
JOE S. ROOF
Tri-K Club

President Florida Club, '22, '23

Some kind unknown made Florida
Right in her room appear.

Strives for the highest goal;
Though all have learned to love her,
She's Eddie's—heart and soul.
ESTHER SIEFERT
Tri-K Club
Proctor Cottages, '23
We all know Esther in two ways:
In nature and gray matter;
For we’ve warmth from the former’s rays,
And much light from the latter.

HELEN SMITH
TC Club
President Kansas Club, '21, '22
Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '21, '22
Some people have a pull, it seems—

To the wrath—of me and you!

HELEN D. SNIDER
TC Club

No matter if the old world ends
Or there’s a revolution,
Our Helen will still be raving on
That theory—evolution.

HELEN TOLMINE
TC CLUB
Quiet and unobtrusive,
In expression she does excel;
We all saw her rare gift displayed
When she "took off" Miss Maxwell.

ROBERTA TOWNSEND

She's one of those chosen few
Who in the "Angels' Abode" resides,

Senior Middle Pennant Girl
As Editor of Hyphen, Jean
Has won with colors high;
It's only to be expected though—
She's the kind that will "do or die."

ELIZABETH WOODBURY
Agora Club
Her voice is most "expressive."
We like her water-wave much,
And better than both of these
She has "The Skin You Love to Touch."

HARRIET WOOLDRIDGE
Beta Club
Our dear hard-working Harriet
Deserves the highest praise;
May happiness and the best of luck
Go with her through her days.

Egotistically yours,
Faithful as usual,
    Gleefully,
With expression,
Musically inclined,
    Mirthfully,
Vehemently yours,
    With dignity,
Turbulently,
    Calmly,
With animation,
Candidly thine,
    Heedlessly,
Reluctantly,
    “Dorisly,” Carefully submitted,
    Haughtily,
Adversely,
    Thoughtlessly,
With hesitation,
    I’ll laugh it off,
Your charming friend,

With the same old crush.

Intelligently,
Solemnly yours,
Quietly,
I'm laughing on,
Obediently-always,
Conscientiously,
Flippantly thine,
With much dignity,
Indifferently,
Serenely thine.
Kindly,
Yours with a march,
Loudly,
Till the next dance,
Primly,
Yours with sense,
Boisterously,
Aspiringly,
Much as usual,
Nonchalantly,
In haste,
Meekly,
Reservedly,
Peppily,
Leisurely yours,

With the same old crush.

Sports at Ward-Belmont

Here are many happy memories of school life which Ward-Belmont girls will cherish throughout the years, and the happiest of these is the memory of the athletics in which they have taken part. Will any girl who has joined forces with one of the peppy athletic clubs—the Athenians, Regulars, Panthers, or Olympians—forget the day when her team won on the hockey field? Will she ever forget the pep which every girl manifested at the games, the coöperative team work of the players, the good sportsmanship of the contesting teams? No! She will hold these memories, as the interest in athletic games and sports is developed and trained, and she will count them as her most precious possessions.

We are loath to see the hockey season pass, but our interests are soon taken up with swimming, water polo, and the classes in life saving. The tennis singles are played off, and when the cold weather comes our indoor gym classes are made interesting by the preparation of exercises to be presented at the Gym meet, in the spring.

As fast as one event is concluded another season is opened and we have basket-ball, baseball, track, horseback riding, and archery following each other in close succession. The tennis doubles are played and the winners have every right to be proud of the titles they have won.

The proudest girl in the school, or at least the girl of whom the rest are so proud, is the "All-Around Athlete," the one who has made the most points in athletics during the year. The "point system" is very complicated to an outsider, but the girls, who are friends of the athletic field and the gym, know that even trying out for a team wins a few points for their record, while to be a member of a varsity squad is greatly desired. A letter, be it orange, or blue, or red, or green, with one's own club insignia is one of the most prized possessions of a Ward-Belmont girl, for these letters represent honors won in a most popular field of Ward-Belmont activities, Athletics.

May Day

To the first year girl the festival of May Day is the loveliest tradition of the year—to the old girl it is the loveliest memory of the last perfect month of school.

The campus is a beautiful panorama of color and life—decorated May Poles—gayly colored frocks—the beautiful white throne with flowers—flowers everywhere—all seem in readiness for the coming Queen. Tiny white-clad pages announce her approach, and then the long procession makes its way to the throne. The Senior Class, as Ladies of the Court, come scattering flowers in the pathway of the beautiful Queen and her two maids.

Slowly and majestically they approach the throne, and the queen is crowned. The ladies of the court prepare to witness the dancers that come to entertain them. Youth—grace and loveliness reign over the campus and the long rays of the late afternoon sun fall on a scene of memorable beauty. It is the festival that crowns the loveliest season of the whole year and remains always among the most cherished recollections of every Ward-Belmont girl.

Woody-Crest

O Woody-Crest, that palace where many a school girl's dreams of boarding school life are fulfilled, that stately mansion of freedom which is responsible for so many of W-B girls' good times, we offer a modest tribute of our homage and unfailing loyalty. Here on the Sundays and Mondays, ripples of the merriest laughter echo back and forth in the quaint, old-fashioned rooms, with their tapestried walls and massive mahogany furniture. Here, through the winter months, we revel in the wonderful warmth and hospitality of the great blazing logs, crackling on the open hearth; here, in the early May, we revel in the luxurious treats of the extensive lawns with their beautiful array of flower beds and gnarled old drooping trees. How wonderful it would be if the old mirrors could once again reflect the smiling faces of the hundreds of other girls who have enjoyed the freedom and irresponsibility of a W-B girl's "other home."

To this palace of dreams, to this mansion of freedom, Ward-Belmont girls offer their tribute of undying loyalty and pledge memories ever nearest and dearest—to this, our Woody-Crest.
Traditional Dinner on George Washington's Birthday

The very word "tradition" suggests mystic and wonderful things, which we cling to with an amazing tenacity, because of their memories and because of the joy they represent. Many are the ways of doing honor to the Father of Our Country, but Ward-Belmont's way strikes the keynotes of patriotism, pleasure, and good-fellowship.

Favored indeed are the two girls who are annually elected, by student vote, to represent George and Martha Washington and preside as the central figures of the occasion. The 1923 George Washington was Miss Martha Williamson, and Miss Helen Campbell was Martha. In line with their costumes, every member of the student body appeared in colonial dress, many with powdered hair and patches. After the girls formed in a picturesque march to the dining rooms, the tradition was still further carried out by a colonial dinner and accompanying appropriate decorations. Another touch of old time custom came in the graceful minuet, danced by a group of girls, and the evening closed with a characteristically happy ball.

The Fable of the Little Seniors

Once upon a time there were two cute little Seniors. Everybody thought they were the Gnat's Knees. One day they rode their faun-colored limousine through the streets of the Grand City. They sure thought they were some Kids, as they strutted along on Senior Privileges. Suddenly two Vandy heroes hove in sight. They passed a couple of smiles and our little Seniors passed others back. They started in on the Gab. Suddenly a chaperon obliterated the horizon.

Now, these little Seniors are able to smile all they want on the highways of their Own Home Town.

Moral: Look before you get leaped on.

The Fable of the Bright Chemistry Student

Once upon a time there was a little girl who was studying chemistry. She thought she knew the chemistry better than the book did. She grabbed a bottle and poured. There was a report—also a rumor—that she had left the campus without permission. An unaccountable hole was located in the roof.

Next day her belt buckle was found in front of "Ac."

Moral: Hitch your wagon to a star, but don't go up on High.

The Fable of the Ward-Belmate and the Horse

Once upon a time a Little Ward-Belmate decided to take lessons in horseback riding. She plunked out thirty dollars and besides invested in a nifty habit. She strutted around so that everybody could see how fine she was. At length, she approached the horse. She decided to go to the left—the horse decided to go to the right—the horse went up—she went down.

Next day twenty-eight dollars was refunded to her and a sofa cushion was worn out.

Moral: Pride goeth before the Horse makes you Fall.

The Fable of the Fat Girl

Once upon a time a Big Fat Girl came to W-B. Her friends kidded her and kidded her. They asked her which Tent Maker made her clothes. They looked to see if the sidewalk was cracked when she stood on it. At length, she decided to Diet. Slowly the fat came rolling off. She regained her girlish Figure. She found her Waist Line—long since gone. She counted her Ribs. One day a Dear Teacher said girls mustn't deprive themselves of food. So again she started to Eat and Eat and Eat.

She is now At Home to friends on the other side of the ropes in the circus Side Show.

Moral: If you want a thing well done, Diet yourself.
The Fable of the Would-be Fish

Once upon a time one who sought a certificate had decided for her by the Higher Powers that she must learn the fish-like art of swimming. With fear and trembling she approached the pool. She jumped in! Three weeks later she planned to try the “awful fifty.” The first ten went beautifully. The next ten slacked up. She approached the third ten.

As she went down for the third time the Dear Teacher pulled her out with a fish pole.

Moral: If at first you don’t succeed, sink, sink again!

The Theory of Evolution

Methinks there’s a certain theory which explains that man changes to suit his environment. If this is true how queer we would be if we stayed long enough at W-B. We would have, for instance:

- Teeth which Fletcherize sufficiently to get us through in exactly forty minutes.
- Feet long, flat, and wide, from wearing “Cants.”
- Eyelids which descend automatically at 10:15 and ascend at 7:47½.
- Arms which cannot hold a dancing partner nearer than six inches.
- “A skin you love to touch.” due to shortage of rouge.
- Lips chronically pursed—merely from saying “ssh!!”
- Eyes that spring blinders when a delegation from Vandy passes.
- Eyes blind to any but “mourning chapeaux.”
- Muscle like a “strong man,” from our “bi-weekly dozen.”
- Figures surpassing Venus, from those “awful fifty yards.”
LETTERS HOME

Dearest Folks:

Exams are over! Those three words may seem banal and commonplace to you, but they are a source of unceasing delight to us, for they bring with them the realization that we are slowly zig-zagging back to normal! We had a delightful, unexpected and impromptu bridge party last night. Sallie Beth and I started out by playing a game of Honeymoon Bridge, but we were soon joined by Mary H. and Caroline, so we became a real foursome, and played strictly according to Hoyle! Sallie Beth and I committed the very un-hostess like act of defeating our guests, but they utterly forgave our seeming inhospitality when I proudly offered the treat of the evening—mother’s fudge! You ask about Sallie Beth—well, she is just as fit and unsensible as can be, but I must confess that her time spent with me is brief and transient ever since a certain Detroit girl captured her heart.

I had a precious date with Bill the other night—he’s a dear! I wore my new spring outfit—gray feathered bonnet and all—and we had a cunning dinner at the Satsuma. We happened to see some of the girls, and my, I wish you could have seen them stare! It must seem quite unusual for one’s own teacher to be doing such an outrageous thing as having dinner with a man—you can’t blame the girls, can you?

The gym meet took place the other afternoon, and how wish you could have seen it! The girls were a glorious symphony in black and white, and their motions were in perfect harmony—it was surely an exquisite sight to gaze upon, and I enjoyed myself to my heart’s content!

I’d like to write gobs more, but I’ve that lean and hungry look that is significant of the fact that I need a hamburger, and here are Dos and Sallie Beth to help me change it into one of utter satisfaction, so we’re off!

Yours for a while yet,

Katie.

FACULTY FIGURE

Delightfully athletic.
Obligingly kind.
Radiantly pretty.
Impecably refined.
Scrupulously earnest.
Capably fit.
Obviously popular.
Not without wit.
Enthusiastically youthful.
Equestrially "it!"

HOW

"How can we find a fitting way
To probe the faculty?
How can we ever understand
Its deep personality."

Thus our staff sadly wondered,
Till one, struck with brilliancy,
Said, "I know a way we can find them out—
We’ll put them to work, you see!"

And so we let the faculty,
Unaided by our counsel sage,
Edit this Hyphen number,
And we called it the Faculty page!

Now we think it’s awfully clever,
And we’re proud as we can be,
But if it does not appeal to you,
Well, the faculty did it, you see!

MISS SHOUSE ENTERTAINS

Perhaps the most brilliant social event of the season was celebrated in the form of a banquet by Miss Mary Shouse. A charming flow of badinage made this occasion a revelation of apt repartee and adroit turns of speech. Dr. John Clark Johnson served as a most delightful toast master and introduced the speakers of the evening with brief comments which teemed with the originality and versatility of our professor. The first speaker of the evening was Miss Lelia D. Mills who made a most ardent appeal on "Freedom of Nashville streets." This charming toast was followed by one equally as interesting and vital to us, which was given by Miss Mary E. Blackwell, who spoke on "Why Morning Sleep is Valuable. The next speaker was Miss Alma Hollinger, who put forth her opinions in a most decisive manner on the question, "Why Not Cut Lab?" Miss Mary R. Norris was the next in order, and with her usual and pleasant manner, she touched more than one listener’s heart in her speech on "Let Us Lighten Their Burdens." Perhaps the most scintillating humour of the evening was that expressed by Dr. C. E. Crosland on his ever-enjoyable, all-absorbing subject of "Texas." The revelation of the answer to a problem is always welcome, and this task was most aptly performed by Miss Martha Cason, who enlightened her audience on the very complex and seemingly unsolvable question, "What Did Latin Die of?" The evening’s entertainment was most admirably brought to a close by Miss Alberta Cooper, who, as she is very accustomed to oratory, displayed the utmost ease in her delightful toast on
"The Way to a Man's Heart."
All those present were unanimous in their opinions that the banquet was an unquestionable success, and it was with many regrets that the happy assembly heard the ringing of the bell which was the signal for their departure.

FACULTY RECITAL
A most brilliant and educational recital was given last Wednesday afternoon by the members of the faculty. The program was opened by a very dramatic and classic reading by Mr. Briequot, whose selection bore the name of "Casey on the Bat." The second number, a vocal selection, "Number Please," was charmingly given by Miss Thach, Miss Sheppe, and Miss Brooks. This was followed by an equally delightful solo, "The Stable Song," from the opera, "The Four Horsemen," which was sung in a most vivacious manner by Miss Gil-
ner. Mr. Lawrence Goodman
then played "In Old Vienna" with his usual distinctive style and sympathetic understanding.
The next number was a brief but enjoyable reading, consisting of several nursery rhymes, given by Miss Anne Cavert. This was followed by a vocal solo,
"Lost: One Wonderful Girl," sung by Mrs. Brown, in an earnest, thoughtful way. Mine.
Beziat then sang "Mayonnaise," in a resonant contralto. The next number on the program was a solo, sung by one of Ward-Belmont's favorites, Miss Anne Litton. The title of her song was
"That's Where My Money Goes." Of entirely different character was the next number,"Heaven Help the Working Girl," sung with feeling and pathos by Miss Alberta Ross.
Miss Theodora Scruggs then delighted the audience by reading excerpts from the most talked of book of the season, "Polly-nanna." The program was fittingly brought to a close by that very genial and affable gentleman, Dr. Whitson, who sang, in his strong baritone voice, an

FACULTY SWIMMING MEET

in the form of the annual Faculty Swimming Meet, in which the records were broken.

SOCIETY
Miss Ransom entertained her Senior Middle Class in a most delightful fashion at a tea dan-sant at which she was hostess last Saturday afternoon. She had also as her guests the Sigma Chi Chapter of Vanderbilt University. The noted Syncopatin'
Seven dispensed perfectly timed, harmless, and healthful sport of dancing.

A delightful line party was held last Wednesday night by some of the faculty. They attended the popular musical production, "Take it From Me." Among the guests were Leftwich, Massey, Ransom, Sloan,
Schmitz, Strick, Henkel, and
Goodman, and Mr. and Mrs.
Rose. The party was chaperoned by the Misses Frances Rose and Barbara Crossland, both members of our administration.

Miss Linda Rhea and Miss Marjorie Shepard purchased a season ticket for chapel services.

They were very fortunate in being able to procure front seats where they are in an excellent position to observe all action which takes place before them.

From folded sheets that name his right.

A youth is standing, lost in song
Which bids his beating heart be still;
And echoes to the world's great throng;
The notes sing:

A single ship glides, sails rigged high,
Though they were battered by the fight
That comes to all who dare pass by.
The waters murmur:
