MISS MARY-JANE PULVER

In appreciation of her competent and enthusiastic guidance in the editing of all student publications and her willing assistance in all student activities, we, the staff of the 1934 Milestones, dedicate this book.

We extend to each member of the Ward-Belmont family our heartiest greetings.

To the staff of the MILESTONES which has labored so diligently, we wish to extend congratulations.

Now that another school year has gone by we can but wish the best for the Seniors who leave us. To the others in the student body we pledge our utmost endeavors to continue in the great cooperative work of continuing at Ward-Belmont those ideals which are the permanent foundations of worth-while advancement.

JOHN W. BARTON.
It should be a source of much gratification to every owner of a MILESTONES to know that her college ranks scholastically with the best; to know that nine of every ten graduates who enter senior institutions make either satisfactory or excellent records; to know that year by year the scholastic average of her college is rising.

We pledge, too, our love for our dear Senior Class—
   God bless them, the old and the new.
We'll hold high those colors, the Gold and the Blue;
   Our banners shall kiss the sky.
Our faith all resisting, our goal for life's best,
   Our motto, "To do or die."

The joys we have here will not fly as the leaves;
   They'll last us life's journey through;
And the love we have now for the friendships we've made
   Will live in our memories, too;
And though we must part from each other some day,
   As Seniors have departed before,
The glorious spirit of old '34
   Will linger for evermore.

SENIOR CLASS ENTERTAINS WITH COFFEE

The Senior class was hostess to the school at coffee after dinner Sunday, September 21, in Rec Hall. The tables were placed at the ends of the room with two Seniors presiding at each. Jane Carroll, Ruth Nobis, Helene Lock, and Ann Shaw poured. Ann Leffin, Dorothy Jones, Beverly Stone, Mary Elizabeth Polk, Marijeen Jacobson, Viva Lee Davis, Nell Betty Anderson, Helen LaPoint, Elizabeth Glisby, and Victoria Keidel served.

The room was decorated with flowers, large vases of which were on every available table. The Seniors all wore afternoon dresses and made charming hostesses. The event served well to place another year in the social annals of Ward-Belmont.

COUNCIL PRESENTS MEMBERS OF COUNCIL-CHAEDED SPEAKER

In order members and Student Council on Tuesday, Viva Lee presented a large number of flowers. The program became better known by the efforts of the Student Council. The program included a vision of the Student Council, the Gaudion, and the Fraternity. The program was well attended and people's condescending attitudes were noted.

As chapel explained it, she made an address which is held.

DR. STOVES, PUBLICATIONS' EDITORS

GREET STUDENTS

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS' EDITORS

Friday, September 21, the sponsor and editors of the Ward-Belmont publications had charge of the chapel program.

Miss Jane Pulver, sponsor of publications and Alumni secretary, initiated the program by giving a short talk on the history, etc., and significance of the Student Council and Alumni. To the new girl she introduced Marijeen Jacobson, editor of the student newspaper, and Amiee Lock, editor of the yearbook, who talked on their own publication, writing students to cooperate in helping both staffs to make this a splendid year for the newspaper and the yearbook.

Dorothy Smith closed the program with the following statement of composition and participation:}

WORDSMITHS CONTEST OF THE WEEK

Wordsmith, the Ward-Belmont literary association, will conduct an annual contest for all students and grad students throughout the semester. The contest will be for the best essay on the subject of "The Art of Writing," and the highest scorer will be awarded a prize.

SOCIAL CLUBS

At the south end of the campus lies Club Village, a group of ten clubhouses clustered around the Old Tower. Of one of these every boarding student is a member. The meeting rooms of the four day-student clubs are found across the street in a large house. In these fourteen clubs is found the competitive life on the campus. They vie for high scholastic honors as well as for victory in the various athletic tournaments. Here, too, one finds the social life centered in the club teas, dances, and open houses. The high spot of the year for each is the annual dance which calls for all the ingenuity and imagination of the members and which brings forth charming results.

HENRIETTA CHERINGTON, A.K.

Henrietta Cherrington was chosen as last year's all-around athlete. To qualify for this title, a girl must have a good citizenship and academic, as well as athletic, standing. She must enter a sport every season and, at the end of the year, must have the highest number of points in athletics. "Cherry" had a total of 110 points. With her natural aptitude for athletics she was most known for her ability at tennis, swimming, and basketball.
Hockey practice began the first quarter of the year. The new girls who did not know the game had to think quickly in order to compete with the old girls who had had experience. However, when the teams were finally organized, they consisted of both old and new players. Each club worked out its teamwork at early morning practices. The games were popular and caused much excitement. Scores did not run high but each goal was well won. The T. C.'s and Tri K's managed to win all three of their games. Those two teams fought the finals on Thanksgiving Day. As the score was tied, 2 to 2, each one will have the cup for one semester.

At the end of the season the hockey varsity was announced: Grace Bosserman, Catherine Brown, Carolyn Eskridge, Dorothy Funk, Elizabeth Glasgow, Becky Hall, Mary Marjorie Lincoln, Martha Pyeatt, Mary Soper, Beverly Stone, and Toska Ann von Borries.
Basketball practice which started shortly before Christmas brought to view much valuable material. The inter-club tournament began in January with the Ariston-Eccowasin game in which the former was defeated with a score of 21 to 32. As the games progressed certain players were outstanding, although on the whole the teams were well matched. The tournament brought forth a large number of high scorers and a great deal of excitement. The semifinal game was played by the A. K.'s and X. L.'s after which the X. L.'s, victorious 44 to 32, were entitled to meet the Tri K's in the final game. This game, the climax of the season, gave the championship to the Tri K's by a score of 33 to 21.

Following the close of the tournament the Basketball Varsity was named with Dorothy Glander, Gilbertine Moore, and Ann Shaw at forward, and Beverly Stone, Isobel Coulter, and Grace Bosserman at guard.
The water polo season, although it had the fewest participants, furnished many thrills. Those who went out for the sport worked hard perfecting the passes, signals, and correct "ducking" technique.

The opening of the tournament found the Tri K, X. L., and A. K. clubs with teams. The Tri K's won the trophy by defeating the other two teams. The following girls were chosen for the water polo varsity: Nell Betty Anderson, Grace Bosserman, Jane Carroll, Victoria Keidel, and "Sunny" Taylor.
BOWLING VARSITY, 1934

Bowling was one of the most popular of sports. Fourteen clubs entered the tournament. The Aristons, X. L.'s, and Del Vers remained in the finals. The Aristons won the cup with a score of 1665 points. The Del Vers were second with 1643 points, and the X. L.'s last with 1571 points. The members of the bowling varsity are: Helen Larimer, Marguerite Page, Ann Shaw, and Ellen Trabue.

FEBRUARY

MINUET PRACTICE BEGAN
At the beginning of February all of the girls in Minuet were busily practicing for the Minuet by Vida Paine that was to be given at the annual Minuet concert. The Minuet is composed of three parts: a Minuet, a Courante and a Gigue. The Minuet was written by British Composer George Frederick Händel. It is written in the key of C major and is 2/4 time. The Minuet is a dance that was popular in the 18th century and is still performed today.

JANE BRIGGS, CHAPEL SPEAKER
Jane Briggs, a senior, spoke in chapel Wednesday morning, February 25. Jane said that usually if we would judge any war or any country we would base it on our own opinions of what we think is right. However, if we look back at the past, we can see that there have been many wars and conflicts that have been started by people who did not understand each other. She reminded us that it is important to try to understand and accept each other's differences.

GYM TURNED INTO ROLLER RINK
The gymnasium was transformed into a roller rink for a special event. The gym was decorated with colorful lights and music was played to create a fun and lively atmosphere. The roller rink was open to all students and it was a popular destination for those looking for a fun activity.

WASHINGTON DINNER, BRILLIANT AFFAIR
Another of Ward-Belmont's most important events was the Washington Dinner. The guests were dressed in their finest attire and enjoyed a delicious meal. The event was well-organized and the atmosphere was lively.

PENTA Tau club entertains
The Penta Tau Club entertained with a successful Open House on February 23. The event was held at the club's house and was attended by many members of the community. The club serves as a social and service organization for the students at Ward-Belmont.

X.L. BONBONNIERE OPENS TONIGHT
The Bonbonniere was opened tonight. This event is a popular tradition at Ward-Belmont and it is a time for students to purchase gifts for their friends and family. The Bonbonniere is located in the student union building.

OUTING CLUB TAKES FIRST WEEK-END
Saturday morning, after third hour, the outing club decided to take the first weekend outing. They went to the beach and had a great time. It was a perfect day for a beach outing and everyone had a great time.

SENIOR—SENIOR—MIDDLE DAY

Today witnesses the carrying out of another of Ward-Beimont’s most treasured traditions. Senior-Senior-Middle Day is one of the oldest and finest of all traditions at Ward-Beimont. If we glance through some of the Hymanas for other years, we will find the writings of this event always gracing the front pages. It is interesting to note what other classes did, and which of the two classes won each year.

The year 1919 seems to be the earliest Senior—Senior—Middle Day mentioned in the Hymanas. In that year the Senior class won a record three out of five games against the Senior class, Middle class, and Seniors. The Seniors won nine out of 13 games that year. The Senior-Senior-Middles carry on the traditional day.
APRIL

MORNING EASTER SERVICE HELD

The early morning Easter service which is among the Ward-Brownstone traditions, was held on Easter morning at 7:00 in the Recreational Hall of the John L. Ferguson, Arlington Method- deviation model, expensive. He spoke on the partail stand of Jesus in the main theme of the message was the fire appeared to those who were present.

Many of the students present were present. Lydia Fontanin, the Y.W.C.A. president, planted the woodchips of the service. Cabinet, assisted by members of the choir, marched.

APRIL 6. DATE OF DANCE RECITAL

The followers of Miss Sarah Jeter and Mrs. Louise Smith are eagerly looking forward to their annual dance recital, to be held April 6, in the Scottish Rite Auditorium. They will know from past experience that the recital promises much in fine entertainment.

We have heard only a bit of the many musical attractions to be featured. That the first half of the program will be given by children a few years to about eleven years of age is a promise of charm. But mention of "Little Women" and a "Schwartz Waltz" raise expectations even higher.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN DANCING

Aristons Wide Bowling Tournament

The annual bowling tournament was held on April 6, and the winning team was announced as the "A" team. The tournament was well attended and had a good atmosphere.

A. A. BANQUET HELD

The active members of the Athletic Association held their annual banquet in the tea room Tuesday, April 17. A skit was given by several of the members. Mary Brooks sang the announcement for station WBAU.

ARISTONS ECCOWASIN ENTERTAIN WITH DANCE

The Aristons-Eccowasin dance was held Friday night, April 13, in the gymnasium. The color scheme was carried out in blue and black, and the general scheme of the decorations included a blue and gold theme.

We have no further details about the festivities of the evening.

DR. SHAILER MATTHEWS, VERS: PERS SPEAKER

Dr. Shailer Matthews, Dean of the University, was the speaker at the meeting. He spoke on the theme of "The Young Man's Vocation," and his address was well received by the audience.

A. SHARRETT, D. WHEELER, E. MURPHY

FISHOLOGY
Fish is health-food,
Pure and simple—
Feeds the mind,
Brings out your dimple:

Should you angle after School is out—
There's good fish yet
As e'er caught out.

Some of these are
Seashore fresh,
So fish for them
With larger mesh.
