The staff offers this book as an expression of our having attained our age of majority—twenty-one years of memories and Milestones at Ward Belmont since this book first was created. Behind us are the shadows of Ward Seminary and Belmont College, ahead of us are future years of happiness and Milestones.
To

Miss Mary Elizabeth Cayce

Whose loyalty has helped to make us loyal, whose friendliness has helped to make us friendly, and whose abilities have encouraged our ambitions, we, the Milestones staff of 1935, dedicate this book.

With the presentation of this issue of the Milestones another school year has gone by. This book is a faithful portrayal by the members of the staff of the personalities and events of the school year. We trust as the years pass that this book may become more than a souvenir—ever a constant reminder of happy days spent at Ward-Belmont. We wish for those seniors who are leaving us the very best in life. To the others in the student body we pledge our continued endeavors to work with them toward the attainment of the ideals for which Ward-Belmont stands.

John Wynne Barton, President.
"By their fruits ye shall know them" applies to institutions as well as to trees and people. The high school and college faculties regard with equanimity the passing of each year's graduating classes, secure in the knowledge that the "fruit" is sound.

Our best wishes go with those of you who are leaving us as we look forward with pleasure to the return of your academically younger sisters.

Sincerely,

Joseph E. Burk, Dean of Faculty.

SENIOR SONG

I

We pledge now our love for our old W.-B.,
We vow to be ever true;
We pledge, too, our love for our dear Senior Class—
God bless them, the old and the new.
We'll hold high those colors, the Gold and the Blue;
Our banners shall kiss the sky.
Our faith all resisting, our goal for life's best,
Our motto, "To do or die."

II

The joys we have here will not fly as the leaves;
They'll last us life's journey through;
And the love we have now for the friendships we've made
Will live in our memories, too;
And though we must part from each other some day,
As Seniors have departed before,
The glorious spirit of old '35
Will linger forevermore.

Faith, truth, and love,
Knowledge, health, and beauty.
To highest service now we dedicate
Till our ideals shall reign o'er all victorious
And light of service lead us on our way.
Till our ideals shall reign o'er all victorious
And light of service lead us on our way.

ATHLETICS
Hockey was a new sport to a great many of the new girls, but they went at it with a great good will and mastered the sport well enough to have some good games. There were thirteen club teams, but only two of them succeeded in winning all three of their games. These two were the Angkors and Triads. The Angkors captured the championship in an exciting final game with the score of 6-2.

To complete the hockey season the Seniors played the Senior-Middles on Thanksgiving morning. This very muddy game went to the Senior-Mids for a 4-1 score.

Elizabeth Cornelius, Evelyn Braden, Grace Benedict, Winnie Coffee, Marguerite Page, Gilbertine Moore, Margaret Greene, Pat Schornhorfer, Marian Weber, and Fay Stipp were chosen for the 1935 hockey varsity.
The basketball season was our most exciting sports season. Practices began before Christmas with various clubs coming into the limelight with exceptional players. The games were fast, and, for the most part, well played. The interclub tournament eliminated all teams finally but the Aristons and the Tri K's. In the finals the Aristons won the right to claim the trophy.

The Seniors and Senior-Middles ended the basketball season with a hard-fought and well-won game which went to the Seniors.

Basketball varsity was composed of: Patty Chadwell, Virginia Smith, Allie George Collier, Jayne Allen, Helen Jones, and Catherine Crossan.
Bowling this year caused much excitement, and most of the clubs had teams entered in the tournament. The four clubs in the finals were the Angkors, Tri K's, Aristons, and A.K.'s. The Angkors were the victors, with a final score of 2,169. Ellen Bowers, an Angkor, was high bowler for the year with a score of 646.

The bowling varsity members are Marguerite Page, Jean Stewart, Ellen Bowers, Catherine Lanham, and Marion Hill.
The tennis singles matches were played in the fall with many entries. Patty Chadwell and Carolyn Concklin played the final match. In winning this match Patty was the winner of the tennis singles for the second time.

The tennis doubles matches were played in the spring. Those in the finals were Patty Chadwell and Jayne Allen, Aristons; and Moselle Worsley and Catherine Crossan, Tri K's. Patty and Jayne took the match and won the trophy for the Aristons.

Tennis singles varsity members are: Patty Chadwell, Carolyn Concklin, Irene Sartor, and Grace Benedict.

SENIOR-MID DANCE
HUGE SUCCESS

The Senior-Middle dance was given by the school for the class on Thursday, February 7. The dining room, the scene of the party, was decorated in green foliage and potted palms.

In the receiving line were Mrs. J.W. Barton, Mrs. A.B. Benedict, Miss Alice Ransom, sponsor of the class, Antonette Treadway, president of the class, and Ellen Bowers, vice-president. Members of the floor committee met the boys in Rec Hall and brought them downstairs and, after taking them through the receiving line, introduced them to girls on the floor.

At ten o'clock supper was served and there was a short intermission. Dancing was over at eleven, but Rec Hall was not emptied until much later.

Nathan Milstein, brilliant violinist, who returned from a European Continent tour in 1935, for his sixth year, is the soloist in the annual Senior-Belmont concert on March 7th.

SENIOR CLASS ROY-ALY ENTERTAINED IN WONDERLAND

Down the rabbit-hole tumbled the Senior Clerk. In the present year the Senior class has produced a whole series of entertainments themed "The Mad Hatter's Tea Party," by the Senior-Middle class.

The walls of the banquet hall were covered with hand-painted decorations of the Wonderland inhabitants. Each table bore a hat of the "Painted Hat" variety, and the Queen of Hearts, with her fans, drew a crowd. The Mad hatter, the Walrus, the Cheshire Cat, and many other characters were depicted in various costumes at each place. The decorations of Alice's "Mad Hatter's Tea Party" theme were carefully and attentively presented. The entire banquet was a success, from the food to the entertainment.

SENIOR VICTORY BRINGS TO CLOSE THRILLING BATTLE

As the end begins, the Senior-Middles and Seniors find themselves in a head-up battle that is truly the "battle of the century." The Senior class, however, is determined to hold on to their victory in the 13th annual Senior-Middle Battle on April 13th.

ALUMS RETURN FOR EASTER WEEK-END
The long-awaited Homecoming weekend finally arrived with flying colors, and the campus was again littered with cars and people representing states and many classes of Ward-Belmont. The annual business lunch on April 19th was held in honor of officers who were elected to lead this year's council. First Vice-President and the Student Council of Ward-Belmont also hosted a beautiful Friday evening of good food and fun at a dinner at the Belle Meade Country Club.

"THY KINGDOM COME," EASTER PAGEANT
Students and Belmont had their annual Easter celebration with a beautiful pageant. This Iris pageant was held on May 3rd and was a special event for the seniors. Miss Townson is drilling over one hundred and fifty girls to take part in one of the most outstanding pageants ever. It is the senior's celebration of the past and the steps a step into the future.
