FOREWORD

Just as a diary of Mistress Belle Ward records the activities, achievements, and ambitions of her years on the campus, so do we, the MILESTONES staff, offer this book, hoping to make immortal the love and memories we hold for our school.
IN MEMORIAM

EVELYN MCCALL
DEPENDABILITY, SINCERITY, SELF-CONTROL
To

MISS CATHERVIN C. E. MORRISON

Who completes our diary by her unfailing interest and by her inspiration to the finest ideals.
"Big Al," with White Columns Shining, Is the Center of Beauty as Well as Enlightenment
"Club Village"—Beauty, Charm, and Serenity; Yet Is the Seat of All Ward-Belmont Hilarity
The Regal atmosphere of "Rec Hall" Retains the Charm of the Old South
The Singing Tower of Ward-Belmont Calls Us Back Each Year
Administration
It is always a pleasure to greet the Ward-Belmont family through the medium of the Milestones. Another year has passed. We trust that each of you may have had something very positive added to your life. May the pages of this book, which will be of valued assistance to your memories in years to come, never lose their interest for you.

John Wynne Barton.

Dr. John Wynne Barton
President

Mr. Andrew B. Benedict
Vice President

Miss Emma I. Sisson
Dean of Residence
At this time of the year thoughts of parting are inevitable. Yet they need not be sad thoughts, since most of you will be back again to continue your formal education, and the rest of you—you graduates of the high school and the college—will be joyously carrying the ideals of Ward-Belmont into realization elsewhere.

The teaching staff of both high school and college wish for the former group a glorious vacation and for the latter "Happy Landings."

THE STUDENT COUNCILS

The Boarding and Day Student Councils, composed of representative girls from each school unit, are organized for the purpose of making and keeping regulations which are necessary in any community. Each girl, on both Boarding and Day Student Councils, endeavors to work with every student toward the attainment of the ideals for which Ward-Belmont stands.

To think of this past year is to call up a train of memories more crowded than we could have anticipated.

To speak of the platform we formulated as a standard by which to measure our progressions of the year, we wonder if we have fulfilled the requirements which were the notches in our measuring stick.

To do best and strive highest is the goal toward which we travel as we leave Ward-Belmont—the Senior Class of 1936.

SENIOR SONG

1

We pledge now our love for our old W.-B.,
We vow to be ever true;
We pledge, too, our love for our dear Senior Class—
God bless them, the old and the new.
We'll hold high those colors, the Gold and the Blue;
Our banners shall kiss the sky.
Our faith all resisting, our goal for life's best,
Our motto: "To do or die."

II

The joys we have here will not fly as the leaves;
They'll last us life's journey through;
And the love we have now for the friendships we've made
Will live in our memories, too;
And though we must part from each other some day,
As Seniors have parted before,
The glorious spirit of old '36
Will linger forevermore.

The Junior-Middle Class this year introduced a new activity—that of challenging the Junior Class in hockey and basketball. When the Junior-Middles were recognized in chapel, they took loyalty as their theme—an essential quality which they thought should be shown in loyalty to oneself or one's ideals, to one's friends, and to Ward-Belmont by upholding its ideals. A banquet preceded the climax of the year—graduation.

JUNIOR-MIDDLE POEM

When far-oft years have held their sway,
And we have come to God to stay;
When buildings, built by mortal men,
Have all come tumbling down again;
’Tis then that we will stand and say,
“Ward-Belmont shall not pass away!”
She still will live in us, you see;
And, if our souls immortal be,
Then that is more the reason why
Ward-Belmont School shall never die!

—PEGGY DICKINSON
SENIOR-MIDDLE CLASS

The Senior-Middle Class of Ward-Belmont began their varied activities for the year 1935-36 with a class picnic given at Mr. Benedict's summer home. In November the class gave a chapel program, Louise Baxter representing the class as its speaker. In addition to this, the Seniors and faculty were given a coffee by the class in December, and the Senior-Middle Banquet, given for the Seniors, was held in March, Laura Mae Carpenter acting as toastmistress.

The Y. W. C. A. in Ward-Belmont tries to add fullness to the life of every girl by service to others and by a growing knowledge of God. Besides conducting Sunday School and Vespers each Sunday, the "Y" does social service work among five different groups of people in Nashville: The Tennessee Children's Home, The Home for Girls, The Old Ladies' Home, The Vanderbilt Hospital, and the Junior League. Forums for the girls on various current political and social situations are given, and school activities such as the Valentine Dinner Party are sponsored by the Y. W. C. A.

THE FOREIGN LANGUAGE CLUBS

Le Cercle Francais, the Spanish Club, and the German Club are all formed from the same principles, and all have the same goal—that of creating in foreign language students an interest in the country, and a desire to become better acquainted with the habits, fashions, and sports of each particular country whose language they are studying. The different clubs take on quite a social aspect, for besides the papers and reports given, at various meetings songs and games are sung and played, and occasionally even an attempt is made to play foreign bridge.

THE LITERARY CLUBS

Wordsmith holds a contest semiannually in which any college student may enter original manuscripts of poetry, prose, or drama. If the material is judged to be of necessary merit, its authoress is elected into this literary organization. At the meetings, which are held every two weeks, the girls bring in material for criticism and discussion. During the year various speakers of literary fame give lectures to the members, which inspires every girl who is interested in writing. Penstaff, a corresponding society, has the same ideals and principles, but is limited to high school girls who have competed in a similar contest.

ART, MUSIC, DRAMATICS

There is every opportunity for development along cultural lines in the extracurricular activities at Ward-Belmont, certainly in the music, art, and dramatics departments. Tryouts are held to select not only the talented girls, but those who are really interested in the type of work offered. Outstanding performances in the dramatic departments are the Christmas play, the Easter pageant, and the Shakespearean play. Both the orchestra and the glee club give concerts, and the art club brings exhibits, lectures, and artists to broaden the girls' knowledge of art.

ATHLETICS

Athletics play such an important part in the life of the Ward-Belmont student that a large section of her journal will be devoted to the recording of these sports. From the first hockey game in the crisp, fall air to the final match of the doubles tennis tournament in the late spring, interest and competition run high. This year the Tri K's won the athletic plaque for obtaining the greatest number of points in year-round sports; Janet Pascoe and Jeanne Cookson were awarded medals for being the best all-round athletes, the former in the college department, the latter in the high school department.
THE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The purpose of this organization is to promote the welfare of the individual mentally, morally, and physically by arousing a genuine interest in athletics; and to establish the highest ideals for comradeship, good sportsmanship, and fair play.

Any student may be a participating member, and the student who totals 150 points in athletic activities becomes an active member. This enables her to hold an office on the board. The Athletic Board meets monthly for a general discussion of Ward-Belmont athletics. At the end of each sport season the board presents trophies and medals to the winning clubs and individuals.

The hockey season is always one of the most exciting seasons, and even though hockey is a comparatively new sport for a great many girls, they all go at it so enthusiastically that good teams are always produced. The Tri K's, being the only club to win all three of their games, consequently captured the championship. To complete the hockey season, the Seniors played the Senior-Middles on Thanksgiving morning, which is always the big game of the season and produces the greatest rivalry. This very muddy game went to the Seniors with a 5-1 score. As an added event this year, the hockey varsity played an alumnae team composed of past members of varsities. The alumnæ took the game 3-2.

The college varsity is composed of the following:

Center Forward .................................................. Lois Whiteman
Right Inner .......................................................... Janet Pascoe
Left Inner ........................................................... Sara Jane Kimmel
Right Wing ......................................................... Frances Laval

The high school varsity is as follows:

This year the basketball season was exceptional from the standpoint that the two most important games of the season were one-sided. In the finals, the Tri K's won the trophy over the Osiron's without any difficulty. In the same way, in the Senior-Senior-Middle game, the Senior-Mids came out with the big end of the score without being seriously threatened.

Practices began before Christmas, and many exceptional players were produced. The interclub tournament eliminated all but the two clubs in the finals, but from all the clubs the college varsity was chosen as follows:

Center Forward . . . . . MOSELLE WORSLEY
Right Forward . . . . . . JANET PASCOE
Left Forward . . . . . . EMALOU FLOREY
Center Guard . . . . . . MARY GRISWOLD
Right Guard . . . . . . . HELEN JONES

Members of the high school basketball varsity are as follows:

Bowling this year caused much excitement, for all the clubs had good teams and there was a great deal of rivalry. The four clubs in the finals were: Angkor, Tri K, Anti-Pandora, and Eccowasin. The Tri K's were the victors with a final score of 302. Mary Pauline Butler, an A. K., made the highest score of the year, with one game of 167.

The Seniors took the bowling contest in the thrilling game with the Senior-Mids. Bowling varsity members are: Ellen Bowers, Marguerite Wallace, Mary Pauline Butler, and Jeanne Cookson.
SWIMMING

Swimming this year has created more interest than it has any time previous, and because of this very fact, more fine swimmers have been produced out of this year’s classes than ever before. This year swimming was not classed as club competition, and consequently, girls won club letters only by passing certain difficult tests. The swimming season reached its climax in the swimming meet in which Elizabeth Cornelius took individual honors.

In addition to the elementary swimming and diving classes, the advanced swimming and diving classes, there were lifesaving classes in which many girls received their emblems. The more advanced swimmers worked for a Ward-Belmont letter by endeavoring to pass certain even more difficult tests than those for the club letters. Nancy Uhl, Elizabeth Cornelius, Virginia Hardesty, Jane Cornelius, and Peggy Armistead received their W.-B. letters.
TENNIS

The finals of the tennis tournament were played November 6, and Winnie Coffee emerged the victor over Betty Rye by a score of 6-4, 6-4. Coffee's neat placement shots, ease with which she played, her fast serves—all contributed to make her an easy winner. Betty Rye, runner-up, exhibited exceptionally good recovery and backhand shots.

Ruth Hewitt and Grace Benedict were in the semifinals which proved a good test of their tennis ability.

CAMPUS LIFE

No diary of Mistress Belle-Ward would be complete without the recording of those activities, formal and informal, which go to make up the campus life at Ward-Belmont. Whether they be quiet chats in club village or the breath-taking excitement of May Day, they definitely have their place in the lives and memories of its students.
Fag Day, and it looks like Anti-Panners. That's how they bought the Hyphen. And now, as I said before. Here's to the athlete. Pirates for a day. A hockey game in its prime. Watch that corner, girlie! The Seniors in all their glory. Class Recognition Day.
Clean shirts . . . the “Fresh-ies” . . . It’s Laval . . . Representaties of the Seniors . . . And does she knock ’em out! . . . It must be a problem . . . It’s all over and Cayce’s satisfied . . . That form; that stance! . . . Going someplace, Miss Ogden?
Aren't they little dears? ...
Calm, serene it sits ...
Hope you get it! ... We needed a snow scene ...
Need more be said? ... Miss Pugh thinks so, too! ...
"The Big Four" ... The beauty of Ward-Belmont ...
Happy, and with books in her arms.
Going out the gate?... The sages (?), or is it slaves?... Monkeys climb trees too... The Twins: the Brownings... On the inside looking out... The Honorable Editor Kiger... From tearoom to infirmary... Just before the test... Lazy days.
There ARE such animals, we see. . . Developing the maternal instinct . . . Right there! . . . The "Grand Old Man" of Ward-Belmont . . . Nothing like being happy . . . Bull! . . . Miss Townsend's Knox . . . The bowling experts . . . "We are the Seniors."
Two ladies in gray . . . "Whence he came from, no one knows" . . . In case you’re wondering, just Elliot and Pollard . . . It’s going to pop! . . . Friends? Well! . . . Where’s the horse? . . . Yo-ho-ho, and a bottle of rum . . . Maybe half an apple a day will suffice . . . Beware, I know!
She keeps the money, or the lack of money! ... The hockey team that showed us how ... Moselle looks harmless here! ... We'll let you guess ... Goody, goody ... The bells of Ward-Belmont ... The calm before the storm ... And did we get beat ... Well! ... The Dean smiles for us.
Why the books, just for show? . . . Parlez vous francais? Mais oui! . . . Take it easy we always say . . . Coy! That's what I calls it . . . And I just laughed and laughed . . . Don't worry, for we'll never escape . . . The majority must be dieting . . . They must be chums . . . Smile sweetly!
The Misses Allen and Dickinson have a close-up! ... Beauties and the beast ... Don't know why, but there they are ... A moment of concentration ... Wait a minute, Miss Major ... And you're not seeing double! ... Going home ... The infirmary beckons to us ... It must be "Sweet Adeline."
One of many... The faculty "melodramer" advertises! ... In the shade of the old summer house ... Cayce solves another girl's problem ... Just a moment of relaxation ... Well, you name it! ... A vision of loneliness ... Perfect students—Yeh! ... It must be a cute joke.
Just waiting for a taxi . . .
She reigns o'er all . . . Don't yell so loud, Cornelia . . .
The very essence of spring . . . May Day, in all its glory . . .
Mother to us all . . .
Still May Day, even more beautiful . . . Not being snooty? . . . Horses!
And they did! . . . Three of the heartier rooters . . . One of the tombstones . . . The victor and Courtney . . . Senior Parade . . . So this is Senior-Senior-Middle Day!
Senior-Mid Parade, and what a one! . . . This time they were wrong . . . The wedding of—oh, well, it's just the Senior-Mids . . . A Senior-Mid's epitaph . . . They challenged the Seniors . . . You'd think that it was Christmas!
Come, wander down the paths of memory
In this, the garden of remembered days.
The fresh blown blossoms of happy hours await
For you to gather e'er they fade away.

And with this invitation, the Seniors, with their Senior-Mid escorts, on March 12, entered the dining room transformed into a lovely garden, with a sparkling fountain’s murmur blending with the music of Murray Harmon’s orchestra, and “a host of golden daffodils” making the atmosphere one of spring and memory time.

Directed by the witticisms of Laura Mae Carpenter, toastmistress, the program was very brilliantly performed around the theme of the flower garden of memories. And the memory of the Senior-Senior-Middle banquet of ’36 will be one of the most cherished memories of all.
GEORGE WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY

Another Ward-Belmont tradition that every girl loves and looks forward to is the Washington birthday dinner and ball. The spirit and gallantry of the old South invades Recreation Hall as the girls in their festive costumes come down the beautiful hanging staircases into the dining room. After the formal dinner, the Seniors go to the gym where they, in colorful colonial costumes, dance the graceful minuet. It is in this way that the Ward-Belmont girls show their love and loyalty to George Washington.

MAY DAY

May Day is another one of the festive occasions observed by Ward-Belmont. The first nice Saturday of May is chosen for the celebration. The Queen of the day is chosen from the Senior Class and is attended by two other girls. One called College Maid is from either the Senior or the Senior-Middle Class; the other is known as the Prep Maid and is elected from one of the High School groups. The rest of the student body participates in one or two of the dances for the entertainment of the Queen and her court of Senior girls. Every club has its own Maypole around which a dance is performed to conclude the festivities of the day.

THE SOCIAL CLUBS

When the new girls arrive at Ward-Belmont, they are rushed by all of the fourteen social clubs; and within three weeks each girl has been taken into one of them. The club as an organization provides a place for every girl to have some responsibility within the smaller unit. It's the cradle of everlasting friendship, and many hours of carefree happiness are spent within the houses.

FISHOLOGY

Fish is health food,
Pure and simple—
Feeds the mind,
Brings out your dimple;

Should you angle after School is out—
There's good fish yet
As e'er caught out.

Some of these are
Seashore fresh,
So fish for them
With larger mesh.
