

Dear Pauline;

I think you treated me very unkindly yesterday afternoon, when I called around to see you. If I have said or done any thing to hurt your feelings, I am more than willing to apologize.

I would like to come up tonight, if agreeable and explain matters.

Your true friend
L. A. McInnes

Feb. 5th 1899.

O. C. Simmons