

Marriage of Miss Fannie Pauline King to Mr Fred Turnley Harned.

Seldom, if ever, has the historic old Methodist church at Leighton, which has witnessed the union of so many loving hearts, appeared lovelier, or been the scene of a praiseworthy wedding than that of last Wednesday evening, when the young lives of Miss Fannie Pauline King, of this place, and Mr. Fred Turnley Harned, of Hopkinsville, Ky., were united at the altar by the venerable pastor, Rev. Jno. S. Davis. The decorations of cedar, palms and ferns, gracefully festooned overhead and around the altar, were very tasty, while a large wedding bell of evergreens and roses suspended overhead seemed ready to peal forth its cheery greeting to the gay assemblage.

At 7 o'clock the bridal party took

At the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. H. H. Cribbs, in the fair city of Sheffield, at high noon Wednesday, in the presence of a large number of invited guests, Miss Helen Gazelle Cribbs became the bride of Mr. J. Barbour Dorsey, of Louisville, Ky. The happy couple left on the northbound L. & N. train a short time later for a bridal tour to Nashville and St. Louis, and will be at home to their friends at 1104 First St., Louisville, after New Year's day.

The bride is the recipient of the high esteem in which she is held by admiring friends here, at Sheffield and elsewhere.

THE NEWS joins in congratulations and well wishes, and hopes that their voyage over the matrimonial sea will be bright sunshine, auspicious gales, and an abundant supply of the desired haven where their journey is ended.

son of Dr. John son of Mr

Invitations are out for the marriage, on Wednesday, December 27, of Miss Pauline King, of this place, to Mr. Fred Turnley Harned, of Hopkinsville, Ky. The marriage will take place at 7:30 p. m. in the Methodist church. The groom will leave on the train the same night for some of the northern or western cities, and will return to Hopkinsville, Ky., at 3 p. m.

Miss Pauline is the daughter of Mr. P. S. King, one of Leighton's sweetest and most accomplished young women. Mr. Harned is a prominent business man, and worthily charming woman he will bless his May their life by one marriage.

the proprietor
newly ad
com-Joined in