

Harmful Language Statement

Items in the Scrapbook Collection, as well as all content and artifacts that have been curated by the Lila D. Bunch Library, are part of the historical record of Belmont University. The materials in this collection document a specific time and place, including the social attitudes and circumstances of the period or place in which they were created. Thus, this Collection (and others in the historical record) may contain content and artifacts that may be harmful or offensive to viewers. Nothing included in this collection, or any other collections, represents the views or opinions of Belmont University, which seeks to cultivate a welcoming and inclusive environment for all.